CLARK H. GREEN. EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR. DEVOTED TO POLITICAL, AGRICULTURAL AND GENERAL INTELLIGENCE.

ONE DOLLAR PERANNUM, INVARIABLY IN ADVANCE.

A Farmer's Life.

The editor of the New England Farmer in a notice of an agriculturl exhibition at

VOL. 17.

GLASGOW, MO., THURSDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 27, 1856.

NO. 40.

For Sale or Rent.

THAT well known Farm on the State Roads leading from St. Louis to St. Joseph and Hannibal to the latter place, about four miles East of Keytesville, Chariton County, Mo., formerly owned and occupied by the late James Herryford.

The subscriber being desirous of leaving Missouri for a milder climate, will sell low for cash, or will give time on one half of the purchase money. This Farm is so well known that it is only necessary to say to strangers coming to the country that it is one of the best Stock Farms, and for richness of soil, is unsurpassed by any in the country; no better can probably be found in the country, and as to its locality for doing any public business, no better can probably be found in the state.

State.
The farm consists of 258 Acres; 130 under cul-The tarm consists of 258 Acres; 130 under cultivation, newly fenced. There are three good Wells, besides plenty of stock water Possession given immediately.

For further particulars, call on the undersigned, on the premises, or address him by letter, at Kaytosvelle, Mo. WILLIAM RUSSELL. March 6, 1856-tf.

A FINE FARM

SLAVES FOR SALE.

THE undersigned will keep constantly on hand, Negro men, women, boys and girls, in Huntsville. All persons who wish to buy negroes can make it to their interest to call on the subscribers, or address them by let ter, giving a description of the kind of slave de sired.

H. L. RUTHERFORD.
W. D. MALONE.

Huntsville December 23, 1856

CASH FOR PRODUCE.

WE are in the market, paying Cash for Dry
E are in the market, paying Cash for Dry Lard, Wheat, Corn and produce generally. Persons having any of the above for sale, will please call on us before selling.

BARTHOLOW & WILLIAMS.

Feb. 21, 1856.

BARTHOLOW & WILLIAMS,

(Successors to Nanson & Bartholow,) Forwarding and Commission Merchants, And Dealers in all kinds of Produce and Boat Stores,

WATER STREET, GLASGOW, MO.

THANKFUL for the very liberal patronage heretofore extended to the late firm of Nanson & Birtholow, we beg to announce that our facilities for the present year are greatly increased, and we hope by strict and personal attention to business to merit a liberal share of patronage. We have safe and ample room for every description of storage—our new Warehouse being immediately on the Plank Road, with an excellent landing from the lower story, and for safety and convenience cannot be excelled by any Warehouse on the river.

We are also in the market, paying cash, for every description of Produce, or will ship for nt of Farmers, rendering an early account BARTHOLOW & WILLIAMS.

Randolph House, Main Street, west side of the Public Square, HUNTSVILLE, Mo.

THE public are respectfully informed that I have taken possession of the above House, with increased facilities for their accommodation. Several very desirable additions have been made to the Hotel, and I am now fully prepared to entertain in the most confortable and satisfactory manner, all who may give me their patronage.

JAMES FLORE. march 20, 1856. Insurance.

AM prepared to effect insurance in responsible offices, upon Buildings, Merchandise, &c., on favorable terms. Open policies given to Shippers, and 25 per cent. of the premiums returned monthly to regular consteners.

T. SHACKELFORD, Agent,

Glasgow.

LUMBER, SHINGLES,

T.ATEL.

THE undersigned is again in the market with a fine stock of Pine and Poplar Lumber, Shingles, Laths, Sash, Blinds and Doors, consisting in part of the following articles:

part of the following articles:
50,000 feet rough clear Pin lumber all thickness;
10,000 " " Poplar " "
30,000 " "White Pine flooring;
25,000 " "Yellow Pine "
40,000 " " Poplar siding;
200,000 " Best Pine Shingles;
100,000 Best Laths;
Together with a good lot of all sizes Sash, Doors, Blinds, &c., all of which he will sell at St. Louis rates, freight added, having bought in the same market with St. Louis men, and can afford to live at their profits.

at their profits.

Terms Cash, positively.

A. W. ROPER.

may 22, 1856. ANDREW L. KERR. COMMISSON & FORWARDING MERCHANT, Brunswick, Mo. PARTICULAR attention paid to consignment March 1, 1856.

NEW FAMILY GROCERY.

THE subscriber has removed to his old stand,
on Water street, where he has opened a Fam ily Grocery Store, with a view to keeping every article a family may desire.
Sugar, Molasses and Syrup, Pickels,
Coffee, Mackerel, Sardines, Tea,
Herring, Nuts, Salt, Cheese,
Confectionary, Spice,
Soaps,

Confectionary, Spice,
Soaps,
Lemon and other Syrups, &c.
ALSO—Liquors, Wines, and Ale, by the barrel, bottle or quart warranted pure, and designed especially for Family use, and Culinary purposes.
Tin and Wooden Ware;
Well Buckets;
Zinc Wash Boards;
Painted Pails and Brooms,
and many other articles too tedious to mention.
A call from my old friends and the public generally is solicited.

JOHN TILLMAN. N. B. Butter, Chickens, Eggs, and Seasonable Vegetables, taken in exchange for anything an my establishment, and the highest cash rates allowed.

150 Kegs Wheeling nails, all sizes, for sale

SMITH'S HOTEL,

GLASGOW, MO. The undersigned has opened a large and commodious Hotel between Second and Third, and Market and Howard streets, in this city. His house is new, and fitted up in the very best style, and has ample facilities for a first class hotel. He has spared no pains in making his rooms elegant and comfortable. His table will at all times be furnished in a manner to gratify the utmost reasonable wishes of his guests. The situation of his house is one of the most pleasant and healthy in this city.

Between Locust on B. L. H. Terre, St. Louis. The situation of his house is one of the most pleasant and healthy in this city.

uation of his house, so the healthy in this city.

There is a good livery stable close at hand, wherestock will be well attended to. The public are respectfully invited to give him a call.

THE undersigned has opened a public house in Fayette, Mo.

The undersigned has opened a public house in Fayette, Mo., on the south-east corner of the Public Square, where boarders and travellers shall receive every necessary attention.

In connection with this house entire new stabling and a carraige house has been built, which will be attended by the most careful and experienced hostiers, and conveyances will be furnished to any of the neighboring places. the neighboring places.
Jan. 19.
JAS. A. SHIRLEY.

FOR SALE.

THE farm of Nathan Holloway deceased, situate near, Miami, Saline County, Moo., is offered for sale.

Said farm consists of 400 acres, 225 of which is in a high state of cultivation. The improvements consists of a spacious dwelling House, with good outhouses, barns &c., a good orchard, a mill in good running order, and everything about it complete for immediate occupancy. The land is well watered and timbered. For further particulars apply to

N. M. HOLLOWAY.

August 30-4f.

Miami, Mo.

BRUNSWICK, Mo.

THE subscriber has removed to his new and commodious Hotel, near Broadway, where he will be pleased to see his old friends and travelling public generally. No pains will be spared to render his guests comfortable, and their apply to The land is well has been furnished with every convenience, and he flatters himself, that no house west of St. Louis can excel his. The table will at all times be furnished with the most choice liquors. Thankful for the liberal patronage heretofore extended to him, he solicits a centinuance of the number of the state of the state

GLASGOW HOUSE,

Brunswick, June 21, 1855.

Water Street, Glasgow, Missouri. The undersigned respectfully announces to his friends and the travelling public that he has leased the above house, and is prepared to accommodate all who will favor him with a call. He has renovated his rooms, and rented those ad-joining, which gives him ample space to accom-modate a greater number of persons than the es-tablishment would heretofore render comfortable. at Glasgow, and good stabling convenient.

WM. H. THOMSON.

January 3,1856.

JEWELRY! JEWELRY! Would respectfully amounce to the citi-tions of Howard county, that with an experience of 15 years in this community, he has again opened a large and splendid assortment of

Fine Gold and Silver Watches, Clocks, Castors, Breastpins, Rings, Accordeons Flutes, fine gold neck and Feb Chaius, Spectacle

Silver Table and Tea Spoons, Toys for children, Razors and Strops, fine Cloth Brushes, &c.

Watehes and Clocks repaired;-allarticle Grateful for the patronage of former friends he confidently expects, by strict attention to his busi less. to receive that of the entire public. Shop at Smith & Maughs' Drug Store.

W. F. DUNNICA & CO.

Having bought out the entire stock of Furniture of Messrs. Nanson & Bar- tholow, will continue the business at their old stand on Water street, where they will supply all who may favor them with their patronage, with PLAIN & ORNAMENTAL FURNITURE on the usual terms. They respectfully invite all to give them a call. Their stock is now complete. We also have a desirable stock of Locks, Screws, Hinges, and all articles necessary for Mechanics' Tools, and Agricultural Implements, to which he after tion of purchasers is respectfully invited. W. F. DUNNICA & CO. Glasgow, January 10, 1856.

EXPRESS! EXPRESS!! The Adams' Missouri River Express.

THE ADAMS' EXPRESS THE ADAMS' EXPRESS that they are now running an Express tri-weekly between St. Joseph and Jefferson City on the Rail Road Line of Packets, connecting at St. Louis via of the Pacific Railroad with their great Eastern and Southern Lines, to all the principal cities of

Our Messengers and Agents will receipt for mat ter to be delivered at any point on this route. Al

Philadelphia, Pa., Baltimore, Md., Washington, D. C., Richmond, Virginia, Charleston, S. C., Mobile, Alabama, Memphis, Tenn., Pittaburg, Pa., Louisville, Ky., Detroit, Mich., Cleveland, Ohio ortland, Maine, Portiand, Maine,
New Haven, Conn.,
Hartford, Conn.,
Albany, New York,
New York City,
New Orleans, La.,
Wheeling, Virginia,
Cincinnati, Ohio,
Chicago, Illinois, Chicago, Illinois, Buffalo, New York, Cleveland, Ohio.

The world-wide reputation of our Company for responsibility and dispatch, is deemed a sufficient quarantee for the operations of the Missouri River Express.

CLINTON JOHNSON. Express.

General Agent.
June 19, 1855.
General Agents, Glasgow.

DAVID TATUM & CO., Commission and Forwarding Merchants, No. 160 SECOND STREET,

ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI. PARTICULAR attention paid to the sale Tobacco, Hemp, Wheat, &c., and to the re-ceiving and forwarding of Produce and Merchan disegenerally. Feb 16, '55-ly.

LADIES' DRESS GOODS. fine Crape D'Paris and Grenadine Robes; ery fine Barege and Organde Robes; Printed Jaconets, Bareges, Tissues, French and India Silks, Ginghams, Prints, Lawns, and all kinds of Dress Goods in the choicest styles, for sale at low prices, by Boon, Duncan & Smith.

F. A. SAVAGE, DEALER IN FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC DRY GOODS BOOTS AND SHOES, Hate, Cope, Hard and Quenavare, Naile, PERST STREET GLASSEW, No.

HUMPHREYS, TUTT & TERRY, Commission and Forwarding MERCHANTS NO. 95 SECOND STREET, Between Locust and Vine, St. Louis, Mo. G. D. HUMPHREYS, St. Louis.

Feb. 7, 1856-ly.

CHAS. A. M'NAIR. W. J. GAMBREL GAMBREL & CO., Importers, Manufacturers and Dealers in FOREIGN TOBACCO AND CIGARS,

WATER STREET, GLASGOW, Mo.,

WELL assorted stock of Old Cigars, of everygrade, always on hands to fill orders.— Quality guaranteed. Terms as liberal and prices as low as any house in the State. [37 Orders respectfully solicited. [March 0, 1866.]

L. WOLFSTEIN, WHOLEALE AND RETAIL -DEALER IN-Clothing, Furnishing Goods, &c.

North corner Water and Market sts., Glasgow, Missouri. Oct. 2, 1856. HERMAN F. STINDE.

C. R. STINDE & CO., WHOLESALE DEALER IN Boots and Shoes, No. 18 Main Street, (Up Stairs,)

t. Louis, Mo . OUR Fall Stock is now open, and dealers re invited to examine it before purchasing.
Oct. 2, 1856-3m.*

DENTISTRY.

HAVING permanently located in Glasgow. Mo. Dr. H. Desrioux Messimy avails himself of this opportunity of returning his sincere thanks to the citizens of this place and vicinity for the liberal patronage bestowed upon him, and solicits a continuance of the same nuance of the same.

Alloperations in the various branches of his profession, performed in a most thorough manner, and warranted.

Reference—The entire satisfaction is work has given to the hundreds who have employed him during a practice of four years at Fayette. Office corner of First and Market streets. Feb. 6, 1856.

GLASGOW HOUSE Livery Stable, JOHN T. MARR.

25: HAVING purchased the Glasgow 25: House Stable, he is prepared to 25: accommodate the traveling public, or private fam-Carriages, Buggies & Saddle Horses, at short notice. His Carriages and Buggies are ENTIRELY NEW-HIS STOCK FRESHnd those who may patronize him will find every-ning as it should be.

Horses boarded by the day, week or month, assengers conveyed to any point desired.
Intending to give his entire and personal atten tion to the bu iness, he hopes to merit and receive a share of the public patronage.

Aug. 28, 1856. JOHN T. MARR.

GLASGOW LIVERY STABLE NEW ARRANGEMENT.

THE subscribers having formed a co-partnership for the purpose of carrying on the LIVERY BUSINESS. would announce to their friends and the pub-that they are now prepared to accommodate traveling public, and citizens generally with Carriages, Buggies or Saddle Horses, at a moment's warning, and on terms as favorable as can be asked. In addition to the stock on hand,

EXTENSIVE PURCHASES have already been mide, and they are constantly adding stock suitable for the saddle or harness, and will at all times keep, subject to call, a STUD of 40 Honses, adapted to all the wants of the com-

CARRIAGES AND BUGGIES are entirely new, from the manufactory of M T. T. Osborne, of this place, and will be kept good state of repair.

A Good Hearse and Carriages, always ready to attend Funerals in the place o vicinity.

Families can at all times rely on good Carriages nd careful drivers. Travelers conveyed to any point, and taken

FROM THE BOATS, at a moment's notice, thus saving the trouble an expense of going to a Ho'el.

Call at the old stand, or at our

NEW STABLE, on Water street, in the building recently occupie by Jas. B. Forbis, as a Grocery Store.

Horses bought and sold.

Horses boarded by the day, week or mont PUGH, THRASH & CO.

August 82, 1856. A. STROUSE. S. STROUSE. M. J. PRIEDSAM

A. STROUSE, FRIEDSAM & CO., -DEALERS IN-GOODS, CLOTHING,

SHOES, HATS, AND MERCHANDISE GENERALLY, WATER STREET, GLASGOW, MO. BLACKSMITHING.

HAVING purchased the shop and tools of Mr. J. H. Finnell, the sub-

SMITHING BUSINESS, at the old stand, in all its various branches, and

THIXTON & CO. and said: August 28, 1856. LEATHER--French Calf Skins. I HAVE an elegant stock of Leather, and some of the finest French Calf Skins ever imported, which will be manufactured to order, in Boots or Shoes.

Boots and Shoes of my own make, always on hand, of good material and workmanship.

STEINMETZ.

"The nex may 22, 1856-6m

The Glasgow

**Single copies of THE TIMES, put up in wrappers, can always be had at the office at five cents a copy.

Where editorial notice of advertisement requested, it will be given and charged for. From Porter's Spirit of the Times. COURTING A WIDOW.

Coming to town one day, I met a friend whom I had not seen for a year. Jones is an eccentric old bachelor, agreeable enough, swer, written in a most beautiful hand. if you happen to please him, but churlish to those he don't like.

been doing with yourself this summer?"

ed out again, and have actually been hunt- exchanged. ing a wife."

you know you promised me, in our college it was not, as I thought it was not right to

"Not so fast my friend; I did not say I husband's death. was going to be married; and, unless some- "Before we left that night, she sat down body else does the courting for me, I don't to the piano and sung that charming air found the women! I thought I had found an she came to the verse, exception, this time; but they are all alike. I had tempted maidens to matrimony before, but never a widow till now. It may relieve she looked tenderly at me, and I felt happy. me to tell you the story, if you can have the Besides that, she sang several French and patience to listen to it."

"I'll hear it with the greatest pleasure." correctly for an American. (So here is Jones' Courtship-not Major Jones, however.)

"You must know," said Jones, "I have graceful air, in triple time. always been fond of lending a hand and a any good at it."

course I went.

which no southerner ever refuses.

We have come up to court fifty thousand "The innocent artlessness of the woman same power to make appropriations for the won her heart, were meaningless and false, show one of you three times that amount; a girl just out of a convent, and I could to erect fortifications at the mouth of the she awoke, as from a dream to the conand it's a widow, and won't require so much hardly imagine a widow so unsophistical as harbor at San Francisco. Indeed, the necourting as a maid.

(Now the nullities, expletives, emphatthousand, we separated, much satisfied with enter.

"The next morning, as I was driving funcied the widow to be. Alas, the best of with Dr. Doubleyou, in his buggy, I said to us are liable to mistakes!

"Do you know a widow Blane, now in "Yes," he answered with animation, "and she is young, pretty and rich." "Deauce take it, there sint a rich mar-

"Never mind! Will you introduce me to her?"

"This very evening, at 8 o'clock, if you wish."

C'est convenu. I had a friend who was her, more to tease him, than for any serious that I was in earnest; I who knew so much. the Dr. know it.

"At the appointed time we found the widat the old stand, in all its various branches, and solicit a share of the public patronage.

Mr. Finnell will have entire charge of the shop, under the supervision of our Mr. Thinnes, who is an experienced workman himself, and it is hoped all who may give us call, will have their work so promptly and satisfaction.

Particular attention paid to horse-shoeing, with no detention longer than is actually necessary to do the work.

"At the appointed time we found the widson.

"I interrupted her, and begged her not to talk so; it was unpleasant to me. 'Let's talk us more of it now, but have some music to divert our thoughts.'

WOMAN'S L worst women:

"As we went home, the Dr. tapped me on the shoulder to arouse me from my revery, it could not sing now: it is no time to sively, 'I could not sing now: it is no time for any revery, it may be supervised her, and begged her not to talk so; it was unpleasant to me. 'Let's talk us on more of it now, but have some music to divert our thoughts.'

"At the appointed time we found the widson."

I interrupted her, and begged her not to talk so; it was unpleasant to me. 'Let's talk us on more of it now, but have some music to divert our thoughts.'

"At the appointed time we found the widson."

As we want himself, and it is hoped all who may give us call, will have their works oppositely and satisfaction.

"At the appointed time we found the widson."

"I interrupted her, and begged her not to talk so; it was unpleasant to me. 'Let's talk us on the solic talk so; it was unpleasant to me. 'Let's talk us on the solic talk so; it was unpleasant to me. 'Let's talk us on the solic talk so; it was unpleasant to me. 'Let's talk us on talk so; it was unpleasant to me. 'Let's talk us on the solic talk so; it was unpleasant to me. 'Let's talk us on the solic talk so; it was unpleasant to me. 'Let's talk us on talk so; it was unpleasant to me. 'Let's talk us on talk so; it was unpleasant to me. 'Let's talk us on talk so; it was unpleasant to me. 'Let's talk us on talk so; it was unpleasant to m

"I can tell you something." "What is it?" I asked.

"You are in love with that woman." to part. "I might have found it out in a few days, but the remark put me to thinking of it at the beginning of our acquaintance, I said to down the street, I thought I passed her with man in that way and marry him it will be another lady, and I stepped into a book- bad for you both; so now, tell me plainly store, till they should go by, that I might see. how much you are worth?" She came into the store and I conversed "I was surprised to see her regard it as a Amherst, Mass., waxes eloquent in speakwith her a few minutes. I left, more charm- common and proper question, and was more ling of the farmer and the ennobling influents a copy.

That afternoon I called to astonished when she gave me an exact verences which surround him: Yearly advertisers are restricted to their legitimate business. Otheradvertisements will be charged at regular rates.

No charge for inserting deaths, but fifty cents per square will be charged for obituary notices—to be paid in advance.

The charge for marriage notices is left e the bridegroom, and will be acknowledged in the paper.

Interneous I called to astonished when she gave me an exact versual inventory of her whole estate. Curious woman, thought I.

"She was about starting on a journey to the north, with a long suit of beaux. Though her faith was plighted to me, I felt uneasy this pencil note endorsed.

Description of a sentiment fast increasing in the rural population. A great many this pencil note endorsed.

this pencil note endorsed. I offer you my name hard as it is.

Respectfully,

"That same evening the Dr. and I called again; and as she said something which I "Well, Jones," said I, "what have you interpreted into a declaration, I took a plain can tell well enough what has happened; and far exceeding that which any other matter ring from my finger, and was about putting it is my duty to inform you what has hap afforded. They feel that in the calm and ra-"You would not guess in a year." (Jones it on hers when she removed a valuable sol- pened to me: I happen to like some man bet- ti nal pursuits of agriculture and its kindred was communicative that day.) "I have turn- itaire and handed it to me; thus rings were ter than you; so you need not give yourself branches, horticulture and aborticulture.

"In conversation I learned that her annus haps fondly anticipated. "Good! I speak to be first groomsman; lucti was not complete, and I regretted that court a woman in less than a year after her

'Our feith then fondly plighting Our destiny writing, This world a heaven shall be! Italian songs, pronouncing the words very

"One I shall ever remember; began thus -Isolina, poverina, mía carina,-a lively,

"After several other visits, I began to tongue in match-making, though I never did gain her confidence, and she told me the sad story of her life. I sympathized with her. "One day a friend said to me, come, go and promised to tell her my story, fixing 4 to town with me; I am going to ask a young p. M., for my story. Punctual to the moment lady to marry me, and I want your useful she came into the parlor with a smile; I was and restpectful to address you a general anassistance, as my intended has a sister who as serious as a parson at a funeral. She swer in your official capacity. In performplays propriety, and must be kept off. Of took a seat on the end of the sofa, and I drew ing this duty to the citizens of California, I up an Elizabeth chair, so that my arm could act in perfect consistency with the self im-"Now the girls were both rich: it is well rest on the sofa end with hers. After givknown that we court none but rich girls. | ing her the fiction of my life, I told her I had | cepting the nomination for the Presidency. "It was a hot summer afternoon when we now determined to marry; that I had led an not to answer interregatories raising new reached the best hotel in town, and the first idle, useless, aimless, selfish life and now I and different issues from those presented women to flirt with them a little after all. and the first thing he did was to invite us I pressed her right hand, her left was wipup to his room to take brandy and ice-water, ing away the tears that filled her eyes, as I thought; but there were no tears, I suspect- Convention, I am decidedly favorable to the to a seat not far distant.

charmed me more and more; she knew no construction of the road, strictly for the You saw not the crushing weight of ageny "D-n it! ejaculated Poor Mas, I can more of the world (I foolishly thought) than purpose of national defence, that they have

she seemed. ics, and almost all southern figures of speechs thought I; conscious of no designs itself, it case as in the other. Neither will their be that crushed to the earth the bright sweet 'Innocence is ever simple and credulous, are oaths, so I'll not set them down, but let suspects none in others; it wears no protechem be understood.) Show her to me and ting shield, bears no weapons of defence; I'm in for anything that's out. After tak- but every door and portal avenue of the ing copious notes on three hundred and fifty heart is thrown open, and all who choose to,

"One evening I was to see her, three or four gentlemen were in the room, one of she tries, that proves. Cruel, cutting obser- first annual message to Congress. vation! I am sure if the young man had heard it, he would not visit a girl over 15, for half a dozen years to come. "Her reply next day to my declaration. intentions on my yart, though I did not let had seen so much of the world, and so many pretty women, love her an artless, little country widow."

for song; the most plaintive music is mockery at such a moment----"We parted that evening as lovers wont

"Some time previous to my declaration, in "The next morning as I was walking here for a fortune, and if you deceive some them down.

"Mas. B .-- As nobody likes to be mis- letters, but got no answer to them. There is an evil, and that there is no enjoyment in called, I enclose you my card, that you may was an elegant gentleman who went as her the occupation that earns the bread we eat write the name properly; for who likes to particular escort, and I was afraid of him, and the delightful homes we occupy. After be Miss-taken! Don't be frightened because though she vowed he had never mentioned looking at all the departments of the exhibilove to her once.

"A pretty little note was returned, in an- at last I got a letter from her; I opened it county, and in their expressions of attachwith trepidation, and read:

what will happen to us in this world; but we children, we found a source of gratification the trouble to visit me this full, as you per- there is less excitement of the passions, less ·Respectfully and truthfully.

"MARY BLANC."

"How I swore when I got that letter." Now, if a man can be sued for a breach of promise, what remedy is there against a and love in the bending grass, the trembling woman for the same crime? None, Mr. lenf, the sparkling flew, and in a thousand know that I shall ever be a Benedict. Con- from Linds: Oh, lue di quest anima, When Jones, none; it is the sex's royal prerogative. wonderful operations constantly carried on Jones hereby warns all old bachelors to be- by His superintending care, and which are ware of the vilders. ever present to him who cultivates the soil.

Letter from Mr. Buchanan in favor of That there are lessons of trust, of confidence, the Pacific Railroad.

WHEATLAND, (near Luncaster.) Pa., ? September 17, 1856. } To B. F. WASHINGTON, Esq., Chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee

California. I have received numerous communications to answer them all, I deem it most proper contented hearts, and the home of the farmer cessity, with a view to repel foreign inva- heart away unsolicited. sion from California, is as great in the one danger in the precedent; for it is almost im. hopes of a trusting heart-nor how for possible to conceive that any case attended weeks, aye, months, she wished for death by such extraordinary and unprecedented to still its throbbings. Nor knew you of circumstances, can ever again occur in our the sweet peace that came to her as she

JAMES BUCHANAN. Mr. Fillmore's Letter on the Pacific

Railroad. Burralo, N. Y., August 30, 1856. I have honor to acknowledge the receipt would a withered flower. No, she told you them about 20 years of age. What young of your letter of the 14th instant, in which not this. But I tell you, base man, as sure gentleman is that?' I asked her. 'He need you inquire whether my sentiments remain as there is a God in heaven so surely shall not come to see me,' she said pettishly; 'I the same in reference to internal improve- He visit you with a judgement for this great don't want to bring up any children!' That ments by the general government, and spec- sorrow which you have brought to that conriageable woman in the United States that was one of the many keen replies I have ially with reference to a railroad to Califor- fiding heart. you do not find out! How did you hear of heard her make. She can be sarcastio, when nia, as they were in 1850, when I sent my

In reply to your inquiry permit me to state that I have invariably refused to pledge myself to any particular course of policy, in case of my election to the Presidency. My was flattering to my vanity. She felt that I past life is the only guarantee which I can going to address her, and I wanted to see was so far her superior, she could not think give for my future conduct. But I have no hesitation in saying that I have seen no California will, on the 1st of next January. cause to change my sentiments on the sub- have Republican Governors. Last year jects of your inquiry, and consequently they there were but 8. remain the same as they were when I penned my annual message to Congress in 1850. MILLARD FILLMORE.

> WOMAN'S LOVE .- 'Sam, I got one ob de worst women for a wife, dat any nigger eber 35,000 plants of it. He says it will undoubthad.' 'Why, Jim, don't she lub you?' 'Ah, edly supercede every other kind of potato.

Woman's lub is Ingian rubber. It strech the more, de more you lub her Yes, Jim-Woman's lub am like Scotch snuff.

I got one pinch, and dat's enough,

"During her absence, I wrote her several people have discarded the belief that labor tion, we were so fortunate as to be intro-"For weeks I suffered like souls in limbo; duced to several of the women of Hampshire ment to rural life, and the happy influences MR. Jones:-None of us can foretell of occupations upon themselves and their temptation to lure from the paths of virtue. and a constantly ennobling influence that hits the soul through nature up to nature's God. That God is deguerreetyped, as it were, before us all; that we see his wisdom > field in many different forms; that wisdom may be found in every flower that blooms. or insect that lives; there are --- "sermons in stones, of submission to be found in the garden and Music in running brooks, And good in everything." Such sentiments are gaining ground, and from sources in California entitled to high as they are received, will the farm house beregard, in reference to the proposed Pacific come embellished with books, with shade Railroad. As it would be impossible for trees, with climbing plants and flowers, and

It Did'nt harm Her. It did'nt harm her. No, not a bit. I thought so. She's even lovelier than ever, her cheeks has not lost its color, nor her eye its brilliancy. It doesn't hurt these

This was the solilequy of a tail, dark man we met was Poco Mas. Poco was gay; intelled to live for some purpose; should my he acknowledged he had been taking a smile; future life be devoted to her happiness? As

"While imbibing, Poco had the inquisi- ed afterwards. I was so much moved, my construction of the Pacific Railroad; and, I it did at harm her. How do you know tiveness to ask us what we had come to voice was choked and I was silent for a moment; at length I told her to reflect on what stitutional power to "declare war" and the that passed in that young heart when she "I was always remarkable for my candor, I had asked her, and to give me an answer constitutional duty to "repel invasions." | learned the painful truth that all those fond In my judgement, Congress possesses the words, those assidious attentions, which had

> No, you know not of this deep sorrow prayed to God to give her strength to bear and overcome her unspoken grief. No. she told not of all these things, although you well knew you taught her to love you. and then cast that love from you as you

A young man, directing a letter to his lady love, wrote her name thus:

"You Ness Brown." The postmaster was somewhat at a loss what to do with the letter, but he finally sent it to You Rope by the pack if.

All the Free States but Indiana and

The Chinese Potatoe.

The attempt to introduce this product into the United States, seems likely to succeed. Mr. Price, of Flushing, on Long Island, has In thirty years from this time, he thinks the annual crop in this country will exceed the cotton crop in value.

FREDING CATTLE .- Cuttle standing in cold, muddy yards, exposed to the weather, THE REASON WAY .- Why are energetic consume about twice as much as those in and free from the accumulations of manure.